

Antonis A. Ellinas

University of Cyprus

Organizing against Democracy:

The Development of the Golden
Dawn in Greece

Monday April 18, 2016,
4:00 pm

Galbraith Room, HSS, 4th Floor, UC San Diego

Center for Hellenic Studies

UC San Diego Department of History
Humanities and Social Sciences Building
5th Floor
9500 Gilman Drive, #0104
La Jolla, CA, 92093-0104
(858) 534-1996

Antonis A. Ellinas is Associate Professor of Comparative Politics at the University of Cyprus, working on comparative European politics. He received his Ph.D. from Princeton University and his B.A. from Hamilton College. He is the author of The Media and the Far Right in Western Europe (Cambridge University Press 2010) and co-author of The European Commission and Bureaucratic Autonomy (Cambridge University Press 2012). His work has appeared in Comparative Politics, the Journal of Common Market Studies, Party Politics and West European Politics, among others. His new project, Organizing against Democracy, examines the organizational development of extremist right-wing parties in Greece and elsewhere in Europe.

UC San Diego

Division of Arts & Humanities