SPECIAL LECTURE

THE CRISIS OF COMMEMORATION
FIRST CONTACTS IN THE AMERICAS

Featuring

DR. RAY ASHLEY
President & CEO, San Diego Maritime Museum

FRANK SALAZAR
Cultural Collections & Program Manager, Imperial Valley Desert Museum

DR. KEVIN TERRACIANO
Professor of History, UCLA

Held during the Southwest Seminar Consortium on Colonial Latin America occurring October 5-7, 2017 at UC San Diego, this talk aims to spark dialogue about the first contact experiences between Indigenous Peoples and Europeans in the Americas, focusing on the continued debates around the celebrations and commemorations of Columbus and Cabrillo and the struggle to recognize Indigenous Peoples' Day.
