

UC San Diego

INSTITUTE OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Manuscript Forum Call for Applications Deadline: November 1

Purpose: The Institute of Arts and Humanities (IAH) seeks to support UC San Diego faculty nearing completion of first or second book manuscripts or artistic endeavors that will feature prominently in promotion to associate or full professor, or equivalent.

Eligibility: Applications are invited from UC San Diego Senate faculty working in any arts or humanities discipline. Manuscripts or artistic endeavors that have not been submitted for review will be given priority.

Award Amount: $500

Funds may be used for indexing, image permissions, feedback from another faculty reader not at a UC, proofreading services, translation work, or other preparation for manuscript publication. Funding for artistic endeavors will depend on the field.

Application Process: Please submit a completed application form to iah@ucsd.edu with:

- Fillable PDF form (attached)
- CV

Award Process: Recipients will be notified by late November.

Reporting Process: You will be asked to submit a short report by June 30 describing how this award impacted your project.

UC San Diego

INSTITUTE OF ARTS AND HUMANITIES

Manuscript Forum Application

Name _____ Department _____

Position Title (Assistant Professor, etc.) _____

Year of Next Academic Review _____

Working Title of Project _____

Have you submitted your manuscript or artistic project for review?

Yes

No

Project Abstract (~250 words)

Proposed Use of Funds

Please submit your application to iah@ucsd.edu with subject line, “Manuscript Forum: Applicant Name” and attach your CV.