

HIUS/ETHN 120D: Race and Oral History in San Diego (Spring 2022)

Professor Simeon Man
TA: Adriana Echeverria

Tu/Th 3:30-4:50p

PETERSON HALL 102

Discussion Section:

Th 5:00-5:50p SOLIS 109

The course will be in-person w/options for remote participation.

This course examines the history of racial and ethnic communities in San Diego by engaging with community-based organizations throughout the city. Students will develop foundational public and digital humanities skills, practice ethical community-engaged research, and contribute to the collection and preservation of oral histories for future scholarship on San Diego.

Community partners will include:

Barrio Logan College Institute

www.bhci.org

Prepares underserved students to be the first in their families to go to college through after school programs for 3rd to 12th graders.

Majdal Center

<https://majdalcenter.org/>

Empowers members of the Arab community in San Diego through political engagement, advocacy, and cultural programming.

Parent Student Resident Organization

<https://www.saysandiego.org/>

Supports resident engagement on issues such as education policy, improving the health of students, and leadership development for families in City Heights.

Karen Organization

<https://karensandiego.org/>

Supports Karen and other ethnic minority groups from Burma who reside in San Diego through community empowerment and leadership development.

Learn more at: knit.ucsd.edu/rohp/