CULTURAL LENS ON NORTH KOREA

THURSDAY
DECEMBER 7, 2023
3:00 – 6:15 P.M. PST
Geisel Library, Seuss Room + Zoom

This event will be hosted in person at Geisel Library in the Seuss Room, 2nd (main) Floor as well as virtually on Zoom. Registration is required.

Organized By
- Jae Hwan Lim, Art History, Theory, and Criticism/Art Practice Ph.D. Program, UC San Diego Department of Visual Arts; Director of Humans of North Korea (HNK)

Sponsored By
- UC San Diego Library
- UC San Diego Department of Visual Arts
- UC San Diego Transnational Korean Studies Program

With Special Thanks To
- Center for Social Value Enhancement Studies of the SK Corporation, Seoul, South Korea

EXHIBIT RECEPTION | 3 - 4 P.M. PST
Enjoy Korean refreshments and view the “Mundanity of North Korea” exhibit.

LECTURES AND Q&A | 4 - 6:15 P.M. PST
Hear from two prominent scholars of North Korean culture as they share their academic insights and discuss their current work. Opening remarks by Professor Jin-Kyung Lee, Director of UC San Diego Transnational Korean Studies.

Media Technologies in Millennial North Korea
Professor Suk-Young Kim
UCLA School of Theater, Film and Television
Professor Kim will explore how media technologies designed North Korea’s own "intranet" for its people during the new millennium.

Chosonhwa 조선화: North Korean Paintings
Professor B.G. Muhn
Georgetown University Department of Art and Art History
Professor Muhn, a nine-time visitor to North Korea, will share his experience of a relatively unknown field of North Korean art, Chosonhwa (조선화).

Contact: ucsdlibrary@ucsd.edu
Registration: lib.ucsd.edu/cultural-lens