Exhibition Opening Reception:
Sophie Scholl and the White Rose
Student Resistance in Nazi Germany

Wednesday, November 8, 2023 | 5 p.m. - 7 p.m.
Lobby of the Arts and Humanities Building (RWAC)

This exhibition tells the story of Sophie Scholl and the White Rose, a student resistance organization in Nazi Germany. Between June 1942 and February 1943, the White Rose produced six leaflets in which they spoke out against dictatorship, war and genocide. On Feb. 22, 1943, four days after their arrest, Sophie Scholl (21), her brother Hans (24) and Christoph Probst (23) were sentenced to death and murdered for their entirely non-violent resistance against an inhumane regime.

Register Here or Scan the QR Code