

Paper War Exile in California during WWII

Exhibition Opening with Live Music and Reception

Tuesday, January 20, 2026 | 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
Lobby of the Arts and Humanities Building (RWAC)

Join us for an immersive evening celebrating the opening of our new exhibition exploring Bertolt Brecht's transformative years in LA. Discover how exile shaped one of the 20th century's most influential playwrights and poets.

The evening will feature a special live performance by soprano Kirsten Ashley Wiest and pianist Todd Moellenberg, who will present a selection of musical works set to Brecht's texts.
